STIPULATED PROTECTIVE
ORDER

THIS MATTER, having come before the Court on a Stipulated Motion for Entry of a Protective Order, and the Court finding there are compelling reasons to enter a protective order in the above-captioned case, it is hereby ORDERED :

PROTECTIVE ORDER

The personal information related to any victims or witnesses, and any document containing personal information related to any victims or witnesses, provided by the government in discovery is deemed Protected Material. As used in this Order, the term “personal information” refers to each victim or witness’s date of birth, Social Security number, driver’s license number, bank account numbers, address, telephone number, location of employment, and other contact information.

Possession of Protected Material is limited to the attorneys of record in the above captioned case and their investigators. The attorneys of record and their investigators may not share or review the Protected Material in any manner with any other person, including the Defendant. This order, however, does not prohibit the attorneys of record

1 from discussing the contents of documents containing personal information with
2 Defendant and prospective witnesses, as long as the attorneys of record do not share the 3 document with Defendant or share any personal information of victims or witnesses with 4 Defendant or prospective witnesses. The attorneys of record and their investigators shall 5 keep any Protected Material secured whenever the Protected Material is not being used in 6 furtherance of their work in the above captioned case. The parties agree that this
7 Protective Order may be modified, as necessary, by filing with the Court a Stipulated
8 Order Modifying the Protective Order.
